

Transatlantic Autumn Voyage I

Malaga, Spain to Marigot, St. Martin

THE ULTIMATE SLOW-TRAVEL YACHTING EXPERIENCE

As you sail from Malaga, Spain to Marigot, St. Martin, take advantage of the ideal opportunity to renew and recharge—mind, body, and soul. With more time to lounge and stargaze, read that favorite book you've been meaning to get to, sample a variety of new dishes from your chef's varied, curated cuisine, practice your golf swing, and pamper yourself at the only Thai-certified Spa at sea. Delve into subject matter you're eager to uncover, with lectures from our nautical expert who explores meteorology and oceanography and provides a healthy dose of information and inspiration. Have fun and try your hand at bridge with our new onboard bridge instructor, perfect for guests of any skill level.

MEET YOUR LECTURER AND ACTIVITY HOST

BILL READ | LECTURER

Bill Read enjoyed a 35-year career with the National Weather Service, retiring in 2012 as Director of the National Hurricane Center (NHC) in Miami. Prior to his serving at NHC, Bill was Meteorologist in Charge of the National Weather Service (NWS) Forecast Office in League City, Texas. Bill earned the Bachelor of Science degree and Master of Science degree in Meteorology from Texas A&M University. He is a Fellow of the American Meteorological Society and has served in 2023 as President of the National Weather Association.

DEBRA PRIDE | BRIDGE INSTRUCTOR

Debra has been playing bridge for over 50 years. Debra and her husband first retired and moved to Rosarito Beach in Baja, California, where she not only directed, but taught bridge to both newcomers and people who had been away for the game for a while. Fifteen years ago, Debra was able to combine her passion for cruising and her love of bridge nearly into a full-time career on the high seas. She has achieved the rank of Ruby Life Master and is a certified bridge director and teacher.
